

New Coaches Information

Jordan Davis

Jordan makes the short journey to Newnan from Fayetteville where he has been coaching with AFC Lightning academy and older boy's teams. Jordan played for the '83 Lightning team before heading to Charleston Southern in 2001 (NCAA Div 1) where he was the captain of the team as a freshman. He transferred to Georgia State in 2002 where he was also captain for three years when he graduated in 2005 with a BS in Psychology. Since then Jordan has been playing in the USL Professional Development League with Columbus Shooting Stars(OH), Richmond Kickers (VA) and the Atlanta Silverbacks.

Apart from coaching with AFC Lightning, Jordan has also coached for GA State University and in the Atlanta Silverbacks youth and summer camp programs. He also coached Spalding High School in Griffin, GA.

Jordan also recently married to Kristen Fountain in the Spring of 2008.

Tate Parish

Tate will join the CCSA as a full-time staff coach in August 2008. Having coached part-time with the Silverbacks Youth Program and summer camps, he will take the step into full-time coaching this Fall.

Tate recently signed with the Silverbacks Pro team having played in the U23 PDL team last year. Tate started his college playing career at Appalachian State, where he earned All-Conference honors before transferring to Clemson in 2005. There he led the team with goals and assists in 2006-07.

Chris Cook

Chris joins the Cannons organization after spending the last 10 years coaching youth players with AFC (4), Norcross (4) and Concorde (2). Chris grew up in Dallas, Texas while playing in the Solar Soccer Club organization. After moving to Nashville, Tennessee during his junior year, he graduated from Franklin High. Chris completed his high school career as the Gatorade Player of the Year and went on to make the Region III ODP team.

Chris graduated from Belmont Abbey College in Charlotte, NC with BA degree in Sports Management. While at Belmont Abbey, Chris was part of a successful program that competed for the National Championships in 1989. He received All-American status for three of his four years. He was captain of the team for his last two seasons and named to the All Region team as well as Player of the Year.

New Coaches Information con...

Following college Chris played professionally for 6 years including stints with the New Mexico Chiles (ASL) and Atlanta Magic (Indoor / Outdoor - USISL). He was named player of the year for the 92 season with the Magic. Chris currently holds the United States Soccer Federation "C" License.

Chris is married with two children. His wife, Debbie along with his son Mitch (16) and daughter Reese (5) reside in Sharpsburg, Ga.

Ade Fairfield

Ade (Adrian) has coached in the US since 2001 with English Premier Soccer, Eurotech Soccer and the MLS team Columbus Crew in 2006. Having played at Walsall FC as a YTS (Youth) player, Adrian went on to play at the semi-professional level with Solihull Borough FC, Bilston Town and Tamworth FC. He most recently left Columbus Crew to play professional for IBV in the Iceland Premier Division in 2006.

Ade is a goalkeeper by trade and will be taking over as the GK Director at the CCSA. Adrian possesses the UEFA C Coaching License and will be coaching at the CCSA since 2006. Adrian was born in the UK and grew up in South Africa before returning to play for Walsall FC in the UK. He has also coached in the UK with South Notts Ladies and Sheffield Utd's Football in the Community program.

Bill Cooper

Bill hails from Wall, NJ on the Jersey Shore where he started playing club and tournament soccer in 1972. He attended St. Rose High School in Belmar, NJ where he was a member of the 1981 NJ State Championship team. Bill played his college soccer at Wheeling Jesuit University in Wheeling, WV from 1982-1986 where he received a BS in Business Administration with minors in philosophy and psychology. Following college, he returned to NJ where he played four seasons in the MMSL (NJ) and four seasons for US Army Soccer based out of Fort Monmouth, NJ. Bill and his family moved from the Jersey Shore to Coweta County in 1996, soon after moving here he joined the Newnan Men's Soccer Club and played four seasons in the ADSL. Now in semi-retirement, Bill plays in the NCASL.

Bill started coaching in the CCSA in 2005 and has received his State F, Regional D, and National Youth Licenses. He has coached boys and girls teams in various age groups and has three children playing in the CCSA. Bill is currently taking the USSF C License at Emory University